

CIRCULAR ECONOMY

INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL IN CIRCULAR ECONOMY PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Duration: 128 hours, 88 in synchronous distance learning and 40 in presence in Ferrara

Period of realization: at distance 12 sept – 30 sept 2022 | In presence 3 oct – 14 oct 2022

Location: University of Ferrara – Department of Economics and Management – via Voltapaletto 11

Number of participants: 20 | Methodology: Blended learning

MODULES

Sustainable development and industrial production | Introduction to circular economy | Environmental legislation | Energy performance | Redesigning products and new business models for services | The economic evaluation of environmental innovation projects \(CBA analysis\) | Life cycle thinking and analysis | Circular economy project management | Project financing | Budgeting | Physical-financial monitoring and risk management | Corporate social responsibility | Circular economy in productive processes – companies best practices.

FACULTY

Director Massimiliano Mazzanti – University of Ferrara – CERCIS

Phoebe Koundouri – Athena RC - Director of EIT Climate KIC HUB Greece

Henning Wilts - Wuppertal Institute for Climate, Environment, Energy - Division Circular Economy

Michele Pinelli – University of Ferrara- Dep. Of Engineering

Jude Sherry – Anois

Mateusz Wielopolski - AEVOLUTION – Circular materials innovation

Lucia Dal Negro - De-LAB srl Società Benefit

Participation fee | The course is cofinanced by Emilia-Romagna Region. The participation fee in charge of participants is 150 Euro.

Access requirements | Graduates in different disciplines and employed people interested in acquiring skills related to circular economy project management

Selection criteria | If the number of admissible applications exceeds the available places, the selection will take place through the analysis of the curriculum and at distance interviews

FOR MORE INFORMATION

 cercis@unife.it