In the second semester (January-June), the Language Centre offers preparatory Italian language courses for university classes. The first three weeks of the courses will be held online (24/01-10/02). This will be followed by a one-week break (13/02-17/02). Starting from Monday 20 February the courses will resume in presence.

Admission is available for:

- Students participating in mobility programs (e.g. Erasmus/Socrates)
- Foreign students already enrolled in ordinary undergraduate courses, or postgraduate masters or doctorate courses
- Foreign visitors to the University of Ferrara

COURSES SCHEDULE AND ORGANISATION:

Courses are divided into five levels (A1, A2, B1, B2), according to the parameters set down by the Common European Framework of Reference. Courses will be held three times a week from Monday to Friday, between 9.00 and 18.00.

- Level A1 - A2 - B1 - B2 (30 hours + 10 hours of self-study).
